REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art of record taken singularly or in combination teaches or suggests

- an information storage that stores therein first address (identifying a called party) to which a second address (address used in a closed network) is made to correspond with IP address translation, information indicating which address, first or second, is to be set in call instruction and reception instruction, and port information used for identifying applications, and a control circuit that determines which address, first or second, is set as a destination address in a call message generated based on information read out from the information storage (claim 1);
- determining if an address translation is to be performed for an address included in a call message created based on destination information, determining if the determined destination is represented by first address or second address, setting an IP address, produced by the address translation, in local device information unique to terminal when the determined result indicates the first address, and setting the local device information when the determined result indicates the second address (claim 9).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
